NOTE: Dormitory fees include VAT. Fees can be paid in advance or in 2 or 4 installments. Credit card payments can be made at the Directorate of Dormitory. Interactive/remote payments are not allowed. The fees will not be refunded except in cases of force majeure (i.e. withdrawing from study due to failure in the METU English Proficiency Exam, suspending study by obtaining approval from the University, obtaining a leave of absence from the University due to health reasons, and having an excuse accepted by the Office of the EBI General Coordinator). Dormitory fees will be refunded if instruction is delivered online, and/or dormitories are not made available, in accordance with a decision made by the METU NCC Administration. The decision regarding the opening date of the Dormitory for the first semester and its opening/closing dates for the second semester is taken by the METU NCC Executive Board of Dormitories. For the first semester, the Dormitory will close on the date following the last day of final exams. Students registered for a room for only the first semester are required to vacate their rooms on the closing date of the Dormitory. Those who will stay in the Dormitory during the second semester as well will be able to leave their personal belongings in their dorm rooms during the semester break, provided that they pay their fees on the dates mentioned above. The Dormitory will remain open during the semester break and students who do not leave for semester break and who have paid their second semester fees will be able to continue staying in the Dormitory.
